

SOCIETY

Despite the warm weather and the exodus of many members prominent in social affairs to the mountains and the mainland, the round of luncheons, teas and dinners continues unbroken. Society in the tropics is becoming like a perpetual motion machine, for the lack of seasons has given hostesses and all who are fond of society the opportunity to entertain regardless of whether it is December, July or October. One month, apparently, is the same as another to Honolulu society-folk.

Mrs. W. P. S. Porter, of San Francisco, wife of Commander Porter of the Honolulu liner Mongolia, was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. P. B. Wing Monday and Tuesday. Her daughter, Miss Edna Porter, is spending July with Dr. and Mrs. Wing.—Tacoma Ledger.

After a most enjoyable visit of three months as the guest of Miss Aimee Gribble, Miss Lettie Adams will depart for her home in San Francisco, by the S. S. Sonoma next Tuesday.

On account of the accident to the U. S. S. Bennington the card party at the naval station for which Capt. and Mrs. Niblack have issued invitations for Tuesday evening next is postponed.

A delightful reception was given on Friday afternoon, July 21, at Mother Castle's beautiful home in Manoa, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Northrup Castle. For the first time in several years Mother Castle herself made her appearance and greeted all the guests. The rooms were beautifully decorated with golden shower, and refreshments were served in the large makai dining room. A piano solo was beautifully rendered by Mrs. W. D. Westervelt, which was followed by the singing of several choice selections by Miss Drusilla Marx, and finally by a piano duet by Miss Margaret Hopper and Mrs. Westervelt. Those present were: Mrs. Mary A. Castle, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Castle, Mrs. H. C. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Castle, Miss Beatrice Castle, Miss Nellie White, Mrs. J. B. Castle, Mr. and Mrs. George P. Castle, Misses Margaret and Dorothy Castle, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Westervelt, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Pond, Mrs. Annie Eldridge, Mr. and Mrs. L. Tenney Peck, Mrs. Eloise Marx, Miss Mary E. Bacon, Miss Helene Irwin and Miss Hyde-Smith were the guests of Miss Marion Scott on Tuesday at a pretty luncheon. Yellow cosmos blossoms and maidenhair ferns garnished the table prettily. The other guests were Miss Kathleen Cartwright, Miss Helen Macfarlane, Miss Helen Kimball, Miss Edith Spalding and Miss Beatrice Castle.

Captain and Mrs. Matson, the former the well known owner of the Matson line of steamships, arrived this week from Hilo and San Francisco and are guests at the Moana Hotel. With them are a party of coast people, including Mr. and Mrs. W. Gregg, Jr., Misses Lurline Matson, Enid Gregg, Ethel Gregg, Ethel Francis, Laidee Paner.

Miss Sophie Judd leaves in August for the East.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Paxton are preparing to leave for the East in a few weeks.

A daughter was born to Prince and Princess Kawanakoa on Friday night.

Mr. Walter Macfarlane has been stricken with brain fever and is confined to his bedroom under the surveillance of physicians and nurses. Mr. Macfarlane was married to Miss Alice Campbell on June 21, the wedding being an elaborate affair. Shortly after returning from their honeymoon on the other side of the Pali, Mr. Macfarlane showed symptoms of illness, which developed into a serious stage during the week.

Miss Helene Robson, laden with garlands and leis, the tributes of a host of friends she made during her sojourn in Honolulu, departed on the Alameda last Wednesday for her home in San Francisco. Miss Robson may visit Honolulu again next year on her way to the Orient in company with her mother.

Society was interested during the week over the announcement of the proposed visit of Queen Margherita of Italy.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Irwin gave a yachting party yesterday for Miss Helene Irwin and Miss Hyde-Smith.

Mrs. Swanzy has gone to her home on the Koolau side of the island to be absent for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodale are to leave shortly for the East to place their daughter, Miss Katherine, in college.

An enjoyable bathing party was given at the Moana Hotel on Tuesday evening by the Misses Connolly for ten friends. A luncheon was enjoyed after surfing, at the family residence.

Mons. Antone Vizzavona, the French Consul, accompanied by Dr. Joao Pinto, returned on Friday from Hawaii and Maui. The Consul paid his respects to Madam Pele at the Volcano by throwing his official card into the crater of Halemaumau. Consul Vizzavona has just received official notification that he is entitled to leave of absence and may go next month to Paris, after which he will go to his home in Corsica to visit for some time. The Consul may get a new post in Italy, in which case he would not return again to Honolulu.

Mrs. E. M. Boyd, who is accompanying her father on a tour of Europe, is now in Florence, Italy. She will leave for New York in a few weeks, en route to Honolulu.

Mrs. Wesley K. Hamilton is slowly convalescing and may be well enough to accompany her husband, Lieut. Hamilton, U. S. A., on the next transport for the Coast. They will be stationed at Fortress Monroe.

Miss Marietta Havens, who has been visiting with Miss Bertha Young, is booked to leave on the Sonoma next Tuesday for her home in Oakland.

Mrs. E. C. Swartout is booked to depart next Tuesday on the Sonoma en route to her home in Oakland.

Mrs. Helen Kelley and daughters expect to leave San Francisco for Boston some time in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. William Haywood have been entertained much during the past week. On Thursday evening a delightful dinner party was arranged for them by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewers at their Makiki residence. Red roses and maidenhair ferns formed an artistic set of decorations for the table. Candy-filled calabashes were given the guests as souvenirs. Among the guests were Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Cooper, Captain and Mrs. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Hawes, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wall. Last Saturday evening a luau was given for Mr. and Mrs. Haywood by Mr. and Mrs. Holloway.

Mrs. Van Vliet, wife of Major Van Vliet, Commandant at Camp McKinley, is expected in Honolulu shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Isenberg expect to return to Honolulu in October.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Wilder, Mrs. C. L. Wight, Mr. W. C. Wilder and others formed a house party during the week as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wilder at their Manoa cottage.

The Examiner says of Stuyvesant Fish, Jr., who was in Honolulu with the Taft party:

Stuyvesant Fish Jr., one of the socially elect of New York and who is with the Taft party, will, on his return from the Philippines, go to work in the machine shops of the Illinois Central Railroad to learn the railroad business from the ground up and fit himself for a railroad career. Stuyvesant Fish, his father, is president of the Illinois Central Railroad. Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish is one of the leaders of New York and Newport society.

Young Fish has just been graduated from an Eastern college. In the Taft party, he, Roger K. Wetmore, son of Senator Wetmore of Rhode Island, and Congressman Nicholas Longworth of Cincinnati, are regarded as particular admirers of Miss Alice Roosevelt.

It is young Fish's intention to spend some time in the machine shops and other branches of the power and operating departments of the Illinois Central. He will then go to work in the freight and passenger departments. According to his plans, he will then acquire a number of years. He will then be given an appointment in the operating or traffic department and work up to the executive department of the company under the eye of his father.

The knowledge that Honolulu society people are to organize a Country Club has reached the mainland and considerable interest is manifested in its success. Among those who have taken note of this fact are enthusiastic golfers and tennis players. A gentleman writes from the mainland: "I am glad to know that golf is so popular in Honolulu and that it is played there in what we call the winter time. I am a golf crank and the fact that

LITTLE TUDOR PLAY SUITS

ARE JUST THE THING FOR YOUR BOYS AND GIRLS, WHO ARE NOT OVER 7 YEARS OLD.

EVERY HEALTHY CHILD

NEEDS A SUIT, IN WHICH IT CAN PLAY without fear. Its beautiful to get next to Mother Earth—and lots of pleasure, too, if one can play freely, feeling that no expensive garment will be ruined.

THE BABY

laughs and looks best dressed in a LITTLE TUDOR. Why? Because his arms and legs are free and he feels comfortable. Creeping—walking, the LITTLE TUDOR fills the bill. Makes an excellent diaper supporter for tiny tots.

THE MATERIAL

of which LITTLE TUDOR play suits are made is fast-colored shirting, not stiff and uncomfortable like the denim overalls. It will stand repeated washings without changing color.

AGES PRICE

1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, ..... 65 cents.
